Special Guest

Doug Small is a pastor at heart, a family man – the father of 5 children and 11 grandchildren. He serves as President of Alive Ministries, and as director of the recently launched - Project: Pray Southeast USA, an outreach of Alive Ministries.

P. Douglas Small
President of Alive Ministries
& Director of Project Pray

He also serves as a member of the National Evangelism Team for the Church of God, and as a member of the Board of Directors of International Renewal Ministries (Prayer Summits, International). He functions as a member of the National Prayer Committee as a participant in Mission America's city impact roundtable.

CONFERENCE MINISTRY

After a number of years in pastoral ministry and education, at the secondary and college level, Doug founded a conference ministry in 1988. For over ten years, he conducted Bible, Family and Leadership seminars across the nation and authored a number of seminars.

CONVENTION SPEAKER

He is a popular speaker for the Church of God and other Pentecostal-Evangelical organizations for state and national conventions. He is a frequent speaker for ministers and wives conferences, family and also at men's events.

PRAYER SUMMITS

Doug serves as a facilitator and trainer for citywide pastoral prayer summits in addition to being the Southeast regional representative for the movement. He has traveled to 60 southeastern cities and abroad meeting with pastoral groups from almost every conceivable denomination. This year, more than 20 SE USA cities will conduct prayer summits. Over 100 summits have now been conducted in the southeast alone.
